

FEE STRUCTURE

Pre-Accreditation Fees

This fee initiates the process for applying for accreditation and communicates to AHAB that the organization is committed to the process of accreditation.

Pre-Candidacy Fee $ 750

This fee is assessed after the organization submits its application and AHAB reviews it for completeness. It covers the cost of reviewing the application and all submitted documentation. It also covers the cost of an assigned Accreditation Specialist along with one reviewer's travel expenses and lodging for one night the site visit.

Site Visit & Review Fee $ 3,600

This fee is assessed at the same time as the site visit and reviewer fee and is determined based on the complexity of the applicant organization.

Additional Reviewer $ 1,800

This fee is only assessed if the review team of 2 has an additional night stay during the site visit. The fee is $250 for each additional reviewer.

Additional Night Stays $ 500

Annual Accreditation Fee

The annual accreditation fee is a membership fee for all organizations to have access to information for continuous quality improvement across their accreditation life cycle. Membership includes access to case studies and additional quality improvement development opportunities. Numbers are for households served.
